CEDRIC ADAMS. The eminent radio commentator, lover of people and Roses, has placed his name on this most magnificent Rose. Out of thousands of candidates, Cedric Adams chose this sturdy, large and double scarlet to carmine Aristocrat of Rosedom to carry a beautiful Rose with his name to the rest of the Rose growers of the country.

Peace. Patent No. 591. This Rose is almost unbelievable. One marvel of it is the dawn-like range of colors through which it passes from opening yellow buds, with edges picoteed cerise, to the glorious 5-in. alabaster blooms, each petal edged with pink that seems to deepen as the flower slowly opens. The shades of color vary also, from flower to flower and through the changing seasons. We find this one of the largest of all Hybrid Tea Roses with fine rich green foliage and strong healthy canes. This Rose has everything a Tea Rose could possibly have. A.A.R.S. award for 1946. Each $2.50; 3 or more, $2.20 each.

PLANTING SUGGESTIONS

IRIS

Price: Each 60c; 2 for $1.00.

Blue Shimmer. Clear, sparkling white with an all-over pattern of clear blue stippling. The blue seems to be peppered on the white background in an even manner, rather than in the familiar buttonhole-stitch style. The flowers are extremely large and full. Certainly one of the most outstanding Irises of the past few seasons.

Calcutta. The richness of an Indian tapestry, with both standards and falls a rich cocoa-brown overcast with a bluish veil. Immense flowers. Height 42 inches.

Elmohr. Its immense, beautifully rounded flowers are colored somewhat between Bishop's purple and mulberry-purple. Both flower and color are highly praised by the keenest of the Iris judges. Elmohr is robust, free blooming, hardy, thrives anywhere, foliage lush, blooms immense.

Elsa Sass. A splendid new Iris of very unusual color. The flowers are a sparkling and bright lemon-yellow to sulphur-yellow. The color is penetrating and has great carrying power; as a result, it is a fine variety for distant plantings because the color comes "home to you." Grows well and stems are nicely branched, producing many flowers.

Lady Mohr. A new and altogether different addition to the interesting Wm. Mohr family of Iris, this one brings a color combination previously unknown in the tall bearded group. Standards are oyster-white, huge and slightly fluted with strong midribs. Falls are pale chartreuse or greenish yellow, with prominent veining. There is a very prominent dark patch surrounding the beard. The stalks reach a height of 4 feet and carry several open blooms at one time.

Sable. Almost black; a uniform shade of deepest blue-black-violet, with blue beard. Sable has every attribute that a fine Iris should possess, large size, reasonably tall stalks, thick substance and a wonderfully lustrous sheen. Everybody wants Sable.

Wabash. Pure white standards and rich velvety deep violet falls bordered white, a most striking variety. Very tall, branched above the middle of the stalk with a profusion of large, slightly ruffled blossoms. Awarded the Dykes Medal in 1940.

Snow Velvet. Immense flowers of silken blue-white with a flush of plumbago-blue around the heart of its stiff, stalwart bloom. Crisp finish and ice-cold effect of the blooms is very striking.

IRIS, Japanese. Mixed Colors.
